Catholics Organize School Boards

Negotiators In Accord on Teachers Pay

By Bruce Cutler

Two negotiating teams agreed Friday night on pay raises for teachers in Arlington Heights' elementary schools.

The salary committees of the 25 district boards of education met the Arlington Teachers Assn. (ATA) to present recommendations to the school board tonight.

The board is expected to vote. Whether or not the ATA will accept the salary increase, as well as an administrative salary and special duty payments, at its meeting beginning at 7:30 p.m. in the administrative center, 301 W. South St.

Robert Bialowski, chairman of the school board committee, declined comment on the issue of the district.

"Let's wait and see what happens at Monday's meeting," he said.

JAMES Hall, a member of the ATA negotiating team, explained that the two committees had agreed not to release figures until the school board's meeting.

Teachers in the district's 17 schools are expected to learn of the new pay rate schedule this afternoon.

ATA officials will ask the teachers to attend tonight's meeting and probably will arrange a meeting tomorrow when teachers can vote on what the school board does tonight.

The ATA, for the first time, has discussed salaries with the board under a new agreement for negotiation.

Last week the board's salary committee offered a $5,000 pay raise while the ATA membership voted to ask for a $6,000 salary for teachers fresh from education school.

Teachers new to the district are currently earning $5,000 a year.

IN THE education field of the 1960-67 school year, the estimated average for the district is $5,329.180. The total figure for instruction is $2,304,342 out of a total education fund appropriation of $2,517,992.

The school board voted unanimously at a meeting Jan. 11 to adopt $4,344,600 as the estimated average for the district in 1967-68, as a guideline for preparing next year's budget.

In other business tonight the board is scheduled to act on a list of bills which are added to the normal responsibilities of the board.

These include payments to determine heads of the district high schools, compensation for more playground supervisors and added pay for consultants who work under job specifications.

THESE resolutions, which represent the current discharge from the district's part, are required because state law prohibits school boards from releasing student information to teachers.

The board will vote only on the job and their payment. Later the administration will make plans to fill these jobs.

Schools in the district include Dryden, Duane, Dwyer, Greenbriar, Ivy Hill, Kensington, North Oaks, Park, Patton, Ridge, Westmont, and Westmont.

Fire at Door
Douglas Brown of Mayfield Heights, 1300 W. Northwest, 25th St., was driving his 1965 Chevrolet when it caught fire at the door of his home.

The fire started at the door of the house, which was built in 1920. The fire was caused by a gas leak from the furnace.

Black smoke, visible for eight miles, poured skyward as new firemen from six departments fought a blaze that destroyed the Villa Venice Restaurant in Northfield Township Saturday afternoon.

Archbishop Cody Orders Action in Area Parishes

By Jan Bone

Catholic schools are going to have school boards. Our Lady of the Wayside school board - first parish school board in the Day area - will hold its first meeting Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the rectory of the Arlington Heights church. Officers will be elected, terms of office decided and a constitution will be proposed.

Last Thursday The Most Rev. John Patrick Cody, Archbishop of Chicago, asked for the organization of school boards in every parish of the archdiocese.

"We're being planning this over next November," said the Rev. Harold O'Hara, pastor of Our Lady of the Wayside. "School boards will take some of the burden off of the parish."

Teachers will be appointed initially and four ex-officio members will be named. They will complete a picture of school operations and will be concerned with the complete program of the school, but will be "under the direct supervision and guidance of the pastor."

Our Lady of the Wayside, which will operate from September, has 1,175 children in grades 1-8. Its staff total 25, plus a principal and an assistant.

OTHER churches in the Day area are planning school boards. St. Ignace's in Northbrook has 1,100 children in grades 1-8. Its staff total 25, plus a principal and an assistant.

Summer School On Agenda

Dist. 39 board members will hear plans for summer school at tonight's meeting scheduled for 7 p.m. at the administration building, 2123 S. Arlington Heights Rd., Arlington Heights.

Alvin Lewand, who headed the summer program for two previous years, will present tentative schedules and list of classes for discussion and approval. Last year, Dist. 39 had more than 2,500 summer students - largest enrollment in the area.

Names of students throughout the district who will be considered for appointments to a Parent Study Committee will be given at the board meeting. Each school has suggested representatives, and the first meeting of the committee has been tentatively set for March 13.

Johanna Lewis School, Arlington Heights; Robert Frost, Forest View Elementary; and Dempster Junior High School, Deer Park, will be the first to meet.

Oliver Wendell Holmes Junior High School and John Jay Elementary School will open at Mount Prospect the fall.

5 Arlington Students Finalists in Merit Tests

Five Arlington High School students have become finalists in the National Merit Scholarship Program. They ranked in the top one-half per cent of the students on the test.

Three of the students plan to attend Michigan State University.

They are Janet Cies, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry B. Cies of 410 E. Maple, planning a foreign language major; John Grossmiller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arden R. Grossmiller, 222 Karlov, planning a political science major; and John Pletzer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester H. Pletzer of 1004 N. Mitchell, planning a political science major.

Joe Smith (left), Arlington Heights, newly elected youth chairman of the Youth Center committee, and Bill McDowell, secretary, talk and answer questions as spokesman for the committee. The committee seeks to support establishment of a youth-operated center in some Arlington Heights, 214 S. Arlington Heights Rd. Panel 1 Thursday, 8:30 p.m. Christmas, 202 S. Water, 22 N. Elmwood, and Frank E. Walsh, 21 N. Hawthorne.

Eye Test Program Launched

Vision Care, a new health project sponsored cooperatively by the Salvation Army, the Illinois Optometric Association, and the Cook County suburban area units.

Through the project, all Salvation Army service units, representing the community in Cook County, will provide eye examinations and glasses, when needed, to residents unable to pay for such care.

Those wishing to participate in the program are asked to apply to the representative in the local Salvation Army service unit.

Preschool Classes Begin This Week

The Arlington Heights Park District will offer a play-sports program for youngsters beginning this week.

The classes will start at 1 p.m. for children between three-and-a-half and five years old.

Miss Ida Mae Hanley will teach two-hour sessions in Recreation Park on Wednesdays and Thursdays for two weeks.

A fee of $9 may be paid at the time of registration in the Premier Park office. Registration fee arranged by calling 253-0620.

Some Day

There is one advantage to working around during the daytime you can interrupt those telephone sales calls before the wife signs the installment contract.

A few weeks ago there was the color who beat the drums for a competitor of World Book, those great albums reported by Field Enterprises. We almost had her.

Last week it was Al Hammann that wanted to put tidings on the house.

"It won't hurt," we told the poor saleswoman. "We follow a definite plan in putting our home. Each year the hero of the hour is chosen to keep track of which side the radio station is in."

"We're kidding," she said. "Oh, no," we hurried to assure her. "As soon as it gets over we're going to be on the back. This year we think we'll win. We'll be back next year. It will be time to repeat the line side."

"It makes for easy conversation around the house. Instead of trying to remember who lives to the east, we just look at the radio. The neighbors. Besides, it's easier to remember than Pullitzer."

"The next side—that's the green side," she said. "That's the Harkness side, or something like that. You know, the green people."

"You've got to be kidding," she said.

Vantage Point

Why boot radio? the reader asked. After all, they are a competitive media.

Maybe we, our response, but in the business of the 1950's and 40's, magazines, excellence in the time of television's ascent and perhaps greater popularity, there were those who thought that radio was dead—that television would dominate the market.

in radio is healthier than ever financially. Culturally, perhaps, here radio has a long way to go to its potential excellence, but to the television and newspapers.

Today, there are more than 50 radio stations, AM and FM, broadcasting in Chicago. Radio has something to offer every listener—from rock and roll to classical music, to the kind of good conversation.

News With a Smile

By Catherine O'Donnell

The Arlington Heights railroads are a cold and frosty place these days. Everyone who passes through knows it. However, it is a lot of pleasant good morning and a cheerful smile from Mrs. Doris Henshaw of W. Central.

Doris is there every day at 5 a.m. selling newspapers. She stays in the station until 9:30 a.m. just inside the door. She has been selling papers there for the past five years for the Arlington News Agency.

Somewhere along the line she has lost track of the number of her regular customers. She says the metropolitan station and the large number of the New York Times for the people who just want all the news that's fit to print.

"People talk about everything," she said, "when they are in the mood to talk. Although it does early here everyone looks as if they wish they were back in bed. Right now most of the conversation has been about the weather and probably it is being replaced by talk about income taxes."

When someone begins to train talk into the big city, Doris is the first friendly grader. She says that the weather is a little brighter a dull morning.

The Rolling Meadows Park Board didn't make any great loss forward last night, but it did have a lot to say about the proposed "youth drop-out center."

The board, which decided which facilities the city would build, is a small group of men, a black bar, and a television room, and perhaps a multipurpose room with some gym facilities.

Estimates previously submitted to the board by Park Director Jack Fagel reported such a center would cost from $150,000 to $200,000.

Commissioner Bill Kohn said, "The greatest need here is for a place where kids can go to get their minds off their problems. We're not going to let them go to the school and get into trouble. We're not going to let them go to the school and get into trouble. We're not going to let them go to the school and get into trouble."

Firemen's Friend

Coffee And -- on 24-Hour Call

The Salvation Army Emergency Canteen, staffed by Mount Prospect firemen, is a welcome sight when it rolls into line at a fire scene. The canteen was at the Villa Venice Restaurant fire on Saturday.

A red canteen truck, staffed by Mount Prospect firemen, has been the "salvation" of many fire-fighters.

The Salvation Army Emergency Canteen serves more than 23 communities and is always ready for all. Based in Mount Prospect, the canteen is staffed by 10 firemen. The fire station is at Gold and Route 84. The truck operates 24 hours and was presented to Mount Prospect in October, 1964. Since that time it has been on the scene of more than 25 fires or disasters, that requiring hours of service by firemen.

The canteen serves the communities of: Arlington Heights, Bartlett, Des Plaines, Elk Grove Village, Evanston, Hill, Franklin Park, Oak Grove, Mount Prospect, Niles, Northbrook, Northfield, Northlake, Palatine, Park Ridge, River Grove, Schiller Park, Skokie and Wheeling.

LT. RAYMOND Kordicki of the Mount

Prospect Fire Department, serves as a liaison between the Salvation Army and the village. Lt. Kordicki says that the canteen will be ready for all. trip for doughnuts and sandwich supplies, if necessary, and the canteen is in business.

The Salvation Army Emergency Canteen most recently was on the scene at the fire of the Schindler Furniture Store in Arlington Heights and the Villa Venice Restaurant in Northfield Township. In April, 1965, the canteen was located in Crystal Lake for five days after a tornado.

A DISMOUNTING in Evanston, an accidental fire in River Grove, a sewer cove in Elk Grove Village are some of the emergencies that called the canteen and its staff.

Lt. Kordicki says the Salvation Army maintains the fire department for funds used to supply food and coffee.

The sight of the canteen has become a great morale booster for firemen.

Cartoons Become Historical Book

A polo-stricken retired Air Force captain has edited a collection of colorful cartoon drawings to react to the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

Capt. Raymond R. Bink, 49, 1753 Whitcomb, Des Plaines, says he prepared the book to present a representation of the loss of the historically valuable cartoons that appeared after the assassinations of Presidents Abraham Lincoln, James Garfield and William McKinley.

Capt. Bink spent three years rounding up 160 drawings by Americans and Canadian cartoonists, including 20 Pulitzer Prize the anthology. But Capt. Bink says the Chicago Sun-Times refused permission to reprint Bill Madden's cartoon of a grizzly Lincoln because it was planning to reprint it.

Historian and Kennedy critic Arthur N. Scheraga Jr. wrote the foreword for the book, which is titled "A Nation Grieved." It will be released by the Charles E. Tappan Company around Nov. 22, the fourth anniversary of the assassination.

The book will cost $5.

Chairman Named for Scout Drive

John A. Volkmer, president of the Hammond Organ Co., has accepted the chairmanship of 1967 sustaining membership enrollment program for the Northwest Suburban Council, Boy Scouts of America.

Goal of this year's program is $80,000. Membership lists will support back-up services for 5,000 adult volunteers. The Northwest Suburban Council has 16,000 boys members in 40 Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and Explorers.

Volkmer, who lives in Park Ridge, has been active in scouting for many years. He will lead the enrollment program, which is a community representation of the major programs of the council in the northwest suburbs.

Scouts Seek Executive

A. A. Rose Sr., 100 S. Derry Ln., Arlington Heights, has been appointed a member of the Scouts Executive selecting committee for the Northwest Suburban Council of the Boy Scouts of America.

The committee will work in cooperation with the regional executive director of the Boy Scouts in reviewing candidates throughout the nation. A new Scout Executive is expected to be selected in April, according to Robert M. Hays, executive director of the Northwest Suburban Council.

Prospect Debaters Cop Honors

Prospect High School's varsity and junior varsity debaters received four awards during a tournament held at Wilson North High School Feb. 18.

In the varsity division, seniors Greg Schmidt and Dave Hanger and junior Don Jackson and Dan O'Keefe won first place. They now are eligible to compete in a Tournament of Champions at New Trier High School March 17.

Greg Schmidt also was the second place speaker at the second place speaker award.

Sophomore debaters Chuck Hester, Bob Schuman, Paul Lennish and Kevin Wardell received the second place trophy in the junior varsity division. Chuck Hester placed second in the number of speakers in the tournament.

Man Hester, McGowan is coach of his varsity team.

State Restores Licenses to 2 Motorists

The driver's license division of the office of State Paul Powell has announced the recording of the revocation of the licenses of 17 Cook County residents.

Two are dead. The revocation of the license of Scott V. Thornton, 1909 W. Center, Arlington Heights, was rescinded.

Heinrich, was rescinded because of information from the Circuit Court of Cook County that a previous report of hard evidence on a charge of driving while intoxicated was in error and that Thornton had not been guilty of the offense.

The revocation of the license of Frances A. Blake, 801 E. Goffman, Mount Prospect, was rescinded on the same circumstance.

Kathy Keeps Up Studies During Long Hospital Stay

Kathy Katol, the Arlington Heights' business exchange student who was injured in a bicycling accident, has weathered four weeks of traction and four different rooms.

The petite young actress of the first room could stand the nurses and asked to be moved. But the staff had all gotten well.

"I must just be good luck," she said, "or maybe they just get well by just out."

Since her accident, which resulted in a broken leg, Kathy has been in constant pain. She has been in the hospital for a few days for the first time. "I've gotten phone calls from home from my sister and my parents all every day."

AS FOR her studies, Kathy is keeping pace with her fellow students with the aid of a tutor. The tutor arrives every morning at 8 a.m. and stays until 11 a.m. Kathy has been studying hard since her accident.

"I haven't quite liked the problem of writing in such an awkward position and I find that my school books work like a charm. I'll use one very book like 'Wheat the Poet' for hours, but when I open a book on China for my current Affairs class, I fall asleep."

Her sister, the only other member of her family that she has seen, is a nurse. Kathy's letters had to read "The written book to me and make me what they carry papers like, 'kidding and you', mess."

Kathy said the avoid teenage "groovy" because, "I get it mixed up."

KATHY admitted that the number of visitors has slackened in recent weeks.

She said the kids have been in long lines in the lobby and many of the visitors by and away would a wish more of them would come."

Another seven or eight weeks of visitors is more for Kathy and probably many more roommates but, thanks to the kindness of the hospital, the weeks will be as pleasant as possible.

REALTORS
Those Pledged to an Established Code of Ethics

Realtor - a professional in real estate who subscribes to a strict Code of Ethics as a member of the local and state boards, and of the National Association of Real Estate Boards.

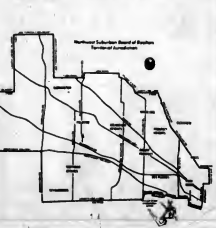

REALTOR'S PLEDGE
Perhaps the best summary of the high ideals which the Realtor endorses is contained in his Realtor's Pledge:

I AM A REALTOR
I Pledge Myself
To protect the individual rights of real estate ownership and to widen the opportunity to enjoy it
To be honorable and honest in all dealings
To seek better to represent my clients by building my knowledge and competence
To act fairly towards all in the spirit of the Golden Rule
To serve well my community, and through it my country
To observe the Realtor's Code of Ethics and conform my conduct to its lofty ideals.

The Realtors Who Advertise On These Pages Stand Ready To Serve You!

BE SURE..
When you are buying or selling real estate, a good way to be sure that you are doing the right thing is to transact your business through a Realtor.

Are you planning to buy or sell real estate? If so, here's the most important fact you should know before making any kind of real estate transaction. It's this. Not every real estate man or woman is a Realtor! You see, Realtors are professional real estate men and women who are members of the National Association of Real Estate Boards and the Northwest Suburban Board of Realtors. These men and women also subscribe to the professional standards of an established code of ethics. What does all this mean to you? Exactly this. When you sell... a Realtor is able to tell you accurately what your real estate is likely to bring... and able to market it for you as quickly as conditions warrant. When you buy... a Realtor is able to find property for you which meets your needs and pocketbook. A Realtor is ready and willing to put his storehouse of real estate knowledge and information at your service. Visit or phone him. A Realtor is not "just another real estate man." He's a member of your local real estate board and thus of the National Association of Real Estate Boards. Only by this affiliation is he permitted to use the trademark, REALTOR.

Horoscope

FOR WEDNESDAY
PISCES (Feb. 20 - March 21) - Take your pleasure and your income from normal routine activities. This is not the time to meditate new methods or seek new goals.
ARIES (March 22 - April 20) - A confusing afternoon demands that you take care of important matters having to do with your career during a calm morning.
Taurus/Aries 21 - May 21) - Morning hours are best for accomplishing your aims. Take care during afternoon and evening that you don't begin to conflict with fancy.
GEMINI (May 22 - June 21) - Don't make plans too far in advance. This is the time for taking your point into consideration and acting accordingly.
CANCER (June 22 - July 23) - Avoid any personal involvement in the affairs of others, particularly where finances are concerned. Take a friend's advice.
LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23) - Though you may be in no more need of it, luck and glory may be your guests when you are not so.
VERGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23) - This can be an excellent day if you are careful not to be involved in much personal relationships. A day for personal gain.
LIRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23) - Unusual morning activity could leave you exhausted by afternoon. Take advantage of an opportunity for rest and relaxation.
SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 23) - Though you may be disappointed on the social level of life, don't allow yourself to become discouraged. Accept an invitation.
SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 24 - Dec. 23) - Avoid any controversy over a matter of importance to your career. Do not change the subject but try to lose an advantage.
CAPRICORN (Dec. 24 - Jan. 20) - Take another's experience to heart. You are told making a serious mistake if you are not to get into and two together.
AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19) - Let your calm take the upper hand and you can avoid a pitfall in your career caused by confusing circumstances of the day.

Twins to Tell Of Double Lives

Three sets of twins will discuss the advantages and disadvantages of being twins at the Thursday evening meeting of the Double Dykes Mother's of Twin Club in the downstairs meeting room of Lusterberg and Oehler Funeral Home, 2000 E. Northwinds Hwy., Arlington Heights.

The three sets of twins that will answer club members' questions are George and Richard Jauch, Candy and Sandy Overton, and Joseph and Frances Schindler.

Refreshments will be served following the meeting. Any mother of twins interested in information concerning the club may contact Mrs. Harold Chamberlain at FL 8-1757.

THE DOUBLE DYKES annual bonding party will begin at 8 p.m. Saturday, March 11 at the River-Road Hotel. Cost will be approximately $3.15 per person. New members or prospective members interested in attending the party should contact Mrs. Fred Hildreth at 299-2349.

Teen Problems Is Women's Club Topic

Housewives are invited to join women at the next meeting of the St. Collins Women's Club to be held at 8 p.m. tomorrow.

Sgt. William Galles, juvenile officer of the Rolling Meadows police department, will speak on problems encountered with teenagers.

The meeting will begin in the church with corporate communion mass.

PTA News

Pre-School Parents To Meet at Dwyer

A pre-school parents meeting will be held at 8 p.m. on Wednesday at Dwyer School multipurpose room. Parents of first year Dwyer School kindergarten classes will learn about their child's first year at school.

Stanley John, principal, and the kindergarten teachers will present a program informing the parents of kindergarten aims and activities. Parents will receive information and forms needed for kindergarten registration on May 4.

Further information about the meeting may be obtained from Mrs. John Amato, CL-2637.

A KINDERGARTEN orientation meeting will be held at 8 p.m. tonight at the Wilson School multipurpose room. The meeting is sponsored by the Wilson PTA for all parents of children eligible for entrance to Wilson kindergarten by September 1967.

A slide presentation and discussion by kindergarten teachers, Mrs. Baughman and Mrs. Miller will comprise the program.

Home-Ee Films

Area showings of the North-west Suburban Girl Scout society will meet at 7:45 p.m. tonight at the home of Mrs. Lou Colletti, 1108 N. Northwinds Highway, Park Ridge.

The program will feature films presented by Mrs. Barbara Becker, home economics teacher at Arlington High School. Area alumnae may phone Mrs. Colletti, 825-1017 for more information.

200 Cadettes Receive Good Grooming Awards

IN THE style show girls modeled their own clothes, learned accessories and color combinations as they had learned in the previous sessions. Girls from Troop 147, 136, 121, 629, 380, 476, 187, 150 and 294 received their badges from Mrs. Stewart.

The Mothers' Troop was pleased to prepare and serve Troop 294 to complete their Social Dependability Club badge, one of the four major steps in the Cadette program.

RIGHT — Mrs. F. J. Stewart awards the Good Grooming badge to one of the 200 Cadette Girl Scouts who participated in an 8-week good grooming clinic.

It's a Big Week For Girl's Groups

Child Care Graduation Tomorrow

Diplomas will be awarded to 182 members of the Baby Sitting Club sponsored by the Arlington Heights Junior Women's Club. The final meeting will be held tomorrow at 7:15 p.m. at Pioneer Park.

Before the graduation ceremony, a panel will discuss the major points taught in the course and answer questions submitted by students.

Panel members will be Mrs. George Behrens, president of the Arlington Heights Junior Women's Club; Mrs. A. R. Stiffell, co-chairman of the course; Anne Johnson and Sue Barron, students at Arlington High School; and Mrs. Joe Florn, chairman of the course, who will serve as moderator.

The course was set up by the Arlington Heights Junior Women's Club as a community service.

Offer Family Planning Help

The family planning center sponsored by the Planned Parenthood Assn. in the northwest suburbs area will meet tomorrow.

The center operates from the Westminster Presbyterian Church, Dempster St. and Bens Drive, Des Plaines. Hours from 1 to 5 p.m.

Dr. Morton Miller, gynecologist and a nurse will be duty to give information and answer questions.

Any persons in the northwest suburbs interested in family planning may use the center's services. For information call 792-4811.

Clipped Wings Take To Runway

Former attendants will model fashions from the current collection of Hart's of Washington at the annual benefit luncheon and fashion show of the Clipped Wings, United Air Line Stewardesses Association, Inc., on March 16 at the Lake Shore Club.

The well-known "Flame of Hope" candles and the music of the Chuck Cavallo Trio will set the mood for the affair.

Mrs. Richard Lindstrom, 2024 E. Oakton, Arlington Heights and Mrs. Robert Van der 252 S. Kenosau, Arlington Heights will be hostesses for the luncheon party.

El Brunchito To Aid Sisters

The annual "El Brunchito" luncheon for the benefit of the Sinisterra Dominica Sisters has been scheduled for Saturday, March 11. It is sponsored by the Chicago Chapter of the Sinisterra Dominican Federation.

The luncheon this year will be held at the Martingale in Evergreen Park, according to Mrs. Harold F. Drexhouser, Pastore, president of the Chicago Chapter.

Arlington Heights women who are assisting the luncheon chairman, Mrs. James P. Donahue of Chicago, include Mrs. Paul Park, Mrs. Peter Rockafell, Mrs. John G. McNally and Mrs. Gustav Ertter.

Dist. 59 Parents Form Study Panel

Representatives from Dist. 59 schools in Arlington Heights and Mount Prospect have been invited to become members of the district's new Parents' Study Committee.

They, and additional representatives, have been invited by board president Douglas S. Burns to an organizational meeting in Dempsey Junior High School, scheduled for Monday.

Parents' Study Committee members from the district's schools in Des Plaines and Elk Grove Village also will be at the meeting.

"We want to provide a representative citizen's committee," said Burns. "To assist in developing the best possible education for children of the district."

"We hope that the study committee will interpret community attitudes to the board, and will also interpret school programs to the community."

The principal aim of the Parents' Study Committee will be the pursuit of mutual understanding.

MEMBERS chosen from Arlington Heights are Anthony Calabrese, 1806 S. Highland, and Mrs. Mary Reichen, 1159 S. Highland. They represent Elk Grove Village.

Other Arlington Heights representatives: — at large will be Bart Calabrese, 215 W. Victoria, Alan George, 1803 Midlantic, Dr. Peter Pontic, 115 W. Emerson, Dr. John Saporito, 115 W. Noyes, and William Vane, 1431 Highland.

Mount Prospect parents who have been invited to join the Parents' Study Committee are Richard Clement, 905 Halton, and Mrs. Albert Moray, 714 West School.

ROBERT BROWN School representatives will be Joseph Becker, 1602 Wilcox, and Kenneth MacLachlan, 1606 Fern Dr.

Dempsey Junior High School members will be Mrs. Samuel Hornick, 1407 Fern, and Mrs. Nancy Ullrich, 284 S. Lyle Ct., Des Plaines.

At large representatives from Des Plaines will be Helen Palmer, 1505 Crawford Circle, and Mrs. Irene Wintermeyer, 1423 Birch.

OTHER DISTRICT parents from Des Plaines and Elk Grove Village have also been asked to join the new organization.

Wheeling Thinclads Top Arlington on Relay Wins

Two big relay wins boosted Wheeling's victory trackmen at Arlington 34-31 yesterday.

The district track club individual first place wins the middle, but the Wheeling club won the four-hour and 12-hour relay.

GARY KRUEGER, Co-Meyer, Tom Nelson, and Tom Fawcett represented the four-hour relay.

For Wheeling, Steve Mykiss and Lou Thomsen won the 12-hour relay.

Both teams had a double victory yesterday. For Wheeling it was Patraschko, who won the 400-yard dash, and low hurdles runner, who won the 100-yard dash. Arlington's Greg Buck won the 100-yard dash, and the 400-yard dash.

Meyer also put in the double victory for the Wheeling boys by winning the broad jump with a leap of 19 feet 4 inches.

Wheeling's other individual winners were Steve Mykiss and Lou Thomsen in the high jump.

TAKING HOME the relay wins.

WITH DALE HOFFMAN

THE GUYS you really have to feel sorry for now that the basketball season is officially over around here is the 19 regulars who weren't named to the Mid-South Area League all-conference team.

The M.S.A. announced its basketball all-star team last week, and fell all over itself getting as many kids from as many schools as possible to put on the list. Eleven boys got first team berths, and five more were honorable mention picks.

A total of 16 all-stars in a seven-team league is going some when you figure there can be only 35 regulars around at the end of the season.

We don't have any quarrel with any of the selections. It's just that calling nearly half of the first-stringers in the league all-stars makes the all-conference prospecting something sort of an exclusive club. Makes you wonder if the 19 kids who aren't all-stars.

THE "ELITE" team was democratic anyway. Of the 16 athletes chosen, no more than three and no fewer than two were taken from any one school. That indicates a pretty balanced league—certainly a more balanced one than the final standings reveal.

There is something to be said for the coaches who were trying to make everyone feel good by allowing at least two berths per school. But that kind of thinking doesn't always have too much to do with honoring the best athletes around, and of course that's what all-star teams are all about.

The all-conference wrestling team came out last week, too, and the prospecting didn't appear to be as incongruous with reality as did the colleagues from the courts.

Of course there is a simpler task. Just about all the wrestlers in each weight class are involved in head-to-head combat with each other during the season, and picking a wrestling all-conference team should be primarily a matter of looking at season records.

EVEN IN THAT ideal case, the M.S.A. came up with a surplus of stars. It seems that it would be far more meaningful to pick out just one or two weight classes as the all-star and one more as the honorable mention selection than to pick three or four classes as the league did last week.

If there are a few boys in the all-star selection menu, you can't really blame the league for all of them. In most cases the blame is merely following the rules of the Inter-Scholastic Association which tells it just how many kids can be chosen by whom and in what spots.

From here, it looks like those rules could send a little story.

For instance the Association says the respective leagues may select a ten-man basketball all-conference team and one honorable mention team.

We would like to see that pared down to a ten-man squad only with first and second teams designated as such.

THE I.S.A. also calls for two wrestling all-stars in each weight category, and we have already given our opinions on that. Perhaps even more to the point would be a conference tournament similar to the ones in cross country and gymnastics to be held at the end of the dual-meet season.

The rules say that there may be no all-star team named in a sport where there is a league meet. That's about right. Certainly an individual league meet should mean more to a variety grappler than the three or four dual-meet contests.

Perhaps a change in the method by which the all-conference teams are selected would be appropriate too. Instead of having the coaches nominate their own boys for consideration as is now the case, it might be better for coaches to nominate the kids they have been playing against. In other words, let the coaches vote for anyone but their own kids.

You could inject a little more objectivity into the proceedings this way, and you might get a few controversial decisions in the game of it.

All conferences have been pretty heavily dominated, and partly by way there from a coach's inclination to name a junior ahead of a junior or sophomore. Ignoring the underclassmen has a year or two left of his way into the lineup.

THE SENIOR ORIENTATION, like the inclination to name as many kids as possible from all over the league, well-intended, but it too misses the point of all-conference selections.

We repeat, we have no quarrel with any of this season's choices on either the wrestling or basketball teams. They have our congratulations. We only wish there were more to congratulate them on.

Tom Chaudier for the Cardinals won the 400-yard dash, and low hurdles runner, who won the 100-yard dash.

Knight Trackmen Bow in Triangular

York and Elgin trackmen bowed in the triangular relay track meet yesterday and worked off with everything but the hurdles.

Sturm's trackmen could do no better than 12:12 points in the team scoring while York piled up 40 and Lakota earned 16:12.

JUNIOR STEVE Holten gave the Knights their most respectable individual performance by taking second place in the mile race.

Don Ducey, added third place effort in the mile race and high jump respectively, but the rest of the boys' points came from fourth place.

Ducey put two of those in the high and middle-mile races, while the 70-100 yard dash was won by Don Ducey.

INSTEAD OF BRITISH
DU CAN'T GO AROUND

[illegible]

French with a Brogue

By Catherine O'Donnell

Arlington Heights people are great gabblers. Anytime you find yourself at the airport, wondering where all the people from, you can't help but find that about half of them must be from this town.

Last week a bag man featured a weekend in Paris with such and such a hotel in Paris. Today's travel tale is about Alain and Louise de Chelin of N. Dryden who have just returned from a weekend in Ireland.

Alain is with the Continental Air Lines and Irish Air Lines. Louise is a nurse and her husband is a doctor. They touched down in Shannon and went on to Dublin.

"It was just a 20-minute ride," said Louise. "Looking down on the country makes you know why they call it the Emerald Isle. It is so green. The airport in Dublin is very close to the city and most of the townspeople go to the airport for much of their social activity."

The De Chelins stayed at the Jery, a hotel just around the corner from O'Connell Street. "I have never seen such courteous people," she said with a trace of bluster with the French accent. "The cars are all driven very slowly and everyone stops for a pedestrian. I did not hear once a single auto horn - how you can imagine in the center city."

"There are hundreds of bicyclists on the streets. The young boys and girls are all dressed up as if they were when we were walking. They are there that if a boy has long hair he must be from England. The boys all wear jackets, shirts and ties."

"Many of the school girls were dressed in green - Jean de you say - school girls. Everything is so green. The grass is greener. Even the buses are painted green."

The very young boys wearing an our head had green bathrobes, caps and gold and green costumes.

"Mr. Shawn Fitzpatrick who has a job with Irish wine is far to the one of my husband who went to Continental was our host when we arrived. On Friday night, we went to the hotel and had a dinner and saw the show. It is so different from anything I have ever seen here. Most of the - how do you say - one who are in the show are older. They sang Irish songs and did Irish dances. It was all so warm and friendly."

Louise really felt in love with the park cars from which flowers are sold in the area. The weather was perfect. "It was really warm here," she said. "The people told us that they did not have winter this year. We went to a grand Irish Linen dance at the airport on Sunday night. It was followed by a dinner and there was a lot of how do you say 'rock and roll' music. I thought was the real color of everyone."

"FRIENDS that they met through the air line. James Terry, Father, took them for a drive around Dublin and the outside. They drove along the shore of the sea and up to the top of a mountain."

They visited St. Patrick's Cathedral and they stayed for a plan of porter. They also learned the correct way to make Irish coffee. (No, what real cream.) Don and Mary Nicholson of N. Dryden could hardly wait for the De Chelins to get home. Don and Mary are from Ireland. The four had been in Ireland. The four had been in Ireland. The four had been in Ireland.

Blue Birds in Winter.

Mr. Harry Bannister of N. Dryden is the mother of one.

Little Blue Bird named Jerry. When Ginger announced that the Camp Fire Girls were about to celebrate their 57th birthday last Sunday, Betty Bannister decided to do something special to make the day festive. She did. She invited all of the Camp Fire Girls from St. James to her home for breakfast on the birthday Sunday.

It was quite an undertaking. There are almost 150 girls, and many attended. The party was divided into two shifts. By a remarkable coincidence, 57 girls - one for each year of the Camp Fire program's existence appeared for the first service.

The rest came later to finish off the dozens of event rolls, the gallons of milk, Ginger's 57 other brothers, Paul and Bill, fashioned lovely bag center fires for the centerpiece. It was a birthday the party celebrated young girls will not soon forget.

"What's so awful about the boys playing 'guerrilla warfare'? At the rate we're going, they're gonna need it!"

Some Day

Thanks to a fine letter from L.Q. Yowell there is still time to write about the Arlington Heights Caucus.

To begin with, the Caucus is great. In fact, it is too great to record a perfect. That's the trouble. Most candidates would think twice before competing against a fine slate such as the Caucus presents. We have one-sided elections that promote public apathy. It is unfair to Caucus candidates to be elected by a small voter turnout.

Voters like to vote against things as much as they like to vote for things, as most school referendums prove. Did people vote for Leonard Johnson or against Larry Goldwater?

There must be a choice. Candidates have for only one state, no matter how qualified, that state may be, is not an election.

Two parties is an obvious remedy, but two political organizations can drive more than one party out of business. Some people will not do so. Some people cannot approach municipal affairs without the aid of the state and yardstick they are for Republicans and Democrats in national politics.

This situation strengthens the Caucus. It provides a reason for one group winning complete state and national elections and the other group losing. The Caucus can be the only way to have a referendum on the state and national issues. The Caucus system is that it eliminates competition by its own process.

The Caucus should hold its candidates instead of three. It could recommend two complete slates and let the voters choose. The Caucus would have a reason to vote. They'd have something to vote against. There is no reason to vote for candidates in a referendum. Public participation is one thing the Caucus and the candidates both endorse.

Vantage Point

Every reporter has covered stories of destruction between the military and civilian population in areas where the military has moved in and established huge installations. It is indeed unusual, like the man being the dog, when a segment of the civilian population welcomes the military with open arms.

Such is the case at Turkey Point, Fla., where the U.S. Air Force Sea Survival School is located on land belonging to the Florida Power and Light Co. and leased to the air force at $1 a year.

Actually, Turkey Point is an enclave. It is once-wilderness land about 25 miles south of booming Miami in the vicinity of Homestead Air Base. Just three short years ago, Turkey Point was a mangrove swamp, good for breeding cotton mouth snakes and alligators. Today, thanks mostly to the vision of one man, Turkey Point is developing into one of the world's foremost centers for the generation of electrical power.

The man with the vision is 67-year-old McGregor Smith, chairman of the Board of Florida Power and Light. Smith, who has been in the public utilities business for almost as long as there has been electricity, is one of the most successful men we have ever met.

Humble in the southern tradition, Smith hosted several school visits at a luncheon at his Turkey Point bungalow.

It was in this bungalow that the story of Smith's relationship with the air force came out.

Turkey Point offered ideal surroundings for the sea survival school and through personal contact with Mr. Wayne Williams, commander of the school, Smith decided to lease the facility to the U.S. Air Force Base at Turkey Point.

The transfer was effected in 1961. At that time, the school was functioning daily, providing training from all branches of the military with the help of the survival techniques.

Who Turkey Point? Smith explained it that way: "We had the school. That needed it. We let them have it. It was that simple."

A Woman's Wrath ...

In our "Letter to the Editor" column today a woman reader presents the suggestion that downtown parking be charged from diagonal to parallel. The letter makes some very sound points that will no doubt be of interest to the Arlington Heights merchants.

In an alert policeman's car the protest should sound the first warning note that the village fathers are getting into dangerous ground.

Perhaps the admonition is unnecessary, but we urge the village to proceed carefully as any change in the parking pattern which might bring down on its head the wrath of the staff customer.

It's one thing for a village trustee to have something as impractical as public opinion when he shares responsibility for some bit of unpopular legislation. But it will be another matter when his own wife begins to tear him like a deflating balloon.

It could go like this:

"Now look here Clyde, You know I could never park parallel to the curb."

Everything was fine when I could pull into a space headfirst. But you and those friends of yours who sit around every Monday night settling the problems of the world had to loose things. From now on, Mr. Big Thinker, you do the shopping and take the clothes to the cleaners, I'll through.

Or this:

"Metin, you've got to do something about that silly parking regulation dreamt up by you and the rest of your buddies. Trustees, sch! Who could trust the bunch of men who would do anything so ridiculous. I'll be right there pointing their fingers at our kids because of what their mothers are saying about you."

The village board can go on letting traffic pile up at the railroad crossings everyone a handcar holler. They can get away with a "temporary" sign law. But when they start interfering with the business habits of American businessmen they are taking the road to certain disaster.

Letters to the Editor

Parking Problems In Downtown Arlington

Editor:

I want to say a few words about the village's plan to charge the downtown parking from diagonal to parallel.

One of the village's wishes they will be driving the shops away from downtown Arlington shopping with 1/3 less parking places.

To me the big problem is that we are NOT ENOUGH PARKING PLACES! The traffic on the corner of Campbell and Division on Saturday morning is not people going in and out of town, but people filling around the block looking for a place to park. Sometimes I have taken 4 spins around the block. Saturday before I was lucky enough to catch someone backing out.

As for the woman driver, what does she think they are doing? Ray Kadey? They are shopping, spending money in our local stores. But if it's for my car, I'll know the man make the money and he'll get to have a place to park.

The village wants to do it. I don't see how they can. I found out a long time ago the shopping centers are just as crowded as Arlington Heights. I enjoy shopping. MY TOWN but it wasn't to buy a new T-shirt for my car or a couple bolts of heavy broad get to have a place to park.

Stepping into Spring

A Lively and Colorful You

This flaring turtleneck dress of all-American double-knit wool was designed by Ellen Brooks for Sportswear Couture. It tempers the boldness of its flanking stripes with long cuffed sleeves and a demure rounded neckline.

BY MARILYN HELLERS
Woman's Editor

Stepping into spring is an experience that every woman looks forward to, and even more so after this winter. Everyone is tired of their winter wardrobe and they are looking for something lively and gay.

Spring 1967 is ready for you. Color and fabric are loaded with excitement. You can step into spring in color from head to toe this time.

Spring has something for everyone. This is the year of the print, especially African prints, and geometric prints. New technology has made it possible to put wild patterns and colors sharply and clearly on any-cloth fabric. The method of applying colors to fabrics results in sharp and brilliant patterns.

Geometric prints will live up to any wardrobe. You can express a variety of moods. Puerto prints are colorful favorites. There are swirling black and white patterns on a ground of white. Caribbean florals in wild color tones such as fuchsia, blue, magenta and green. And checks of red or navy with white are this big on the scene.

THREE shapes lead into spring. One is narrowed above the bustline and flared towards the hem (the tent). The second has a tightly fitted front with contrasting back fullness. A third places a low waist on a silhouette that outlines but doesn't touch the body.

Colors explode in this spring military. Hats are on the face, off the face, small hats and medium hats. Hair is a mass of waves giving a more naturally feminine appearance.

Coats have small armholes and narrowed shoulders. They are slim and modified, occasionally quite full. There are horizontal with fabric stripes or seaming. Coats are often teamed with a dress.

SUITS ARE partnered with printed blouses that match jacket linings. Blouses are often attached to the skirt. Pants suits continue into spring — many patterned after the men and some plain skirts.

The military look still continues — with shiny buttons, pockets and epaulettes showing. Boots keep up with the dash of the military. Boots for the dandy — with pumps and laces — boots for the sporty — with pump tops — brown suede boots and brilliant vinyl boots — boots for any occasion.

Heavy in fabric with color and texture. Spring hose should complete your outfit, matching your dress or your shoes, to give a look of total color.

STRAPS are the big news in strong shoes. Straps are found most, crisscross in front and on the back. More pale pastel colors are found in shoes — more home, too.

Black pants are even "newer" this spring in purses. Small purses are still around. What is coming in trend is in print pattern. There is also a landscape of color available in handbags. You won't have any difficulty "coloring up" your wardrobe in Spring '67.

What's Next? No Skirt Look?

We are now in the midst of a revolution in the world of women's fashions with the "no-skirt" looking as a most influential strange maneuver. Designers have run the gamut with the "no-neck look," the "backy look," the "no-sleeve look" and the "no-bust look" to name but a few. However, according to a famous British designer, the most startling "no-look" of all is on its way, the "no-skirt look."

He predicts that in another 10 years skirts for women will disappear completely. He also has mentioned the possibility that instead men would adopt the use of skirts. A real shocker! Well, consider the Great outdoors and the Scots in their kilts and the probability is not that impossible. What do the men have to say about all this...nobody has asked them. This apparel turn-about is forecast only for the Western World, which according to this designer, at present shows a strong front in the United States. On a recent visit to our shores, he observed that women here are indulging the far more and emphasis has been given to the "busty look."

However, whether we like it or not the Mod look has reached our soil.

Kooky And Wet Look For Teens

One large bag which only promises to be around for a long time to come but is actually gaining in popularity each year is the tote bag. Its most compatible advocate is the woman who wishes to carry with her as extra part of shoes and other necessary paraphernalia, but wants to tote it in something more precise than a shopping bag. This season's crop of tote bags are styled in curves and knicker.

For the teenage set, it's the toady and wet look. They favor the hot colors, as some instances trend down by white.

Foot Gear

It sure your designer is in high gear when you're wearing a pair of shoes. The new look is flat and modern, old-time-looking spectator shoes with laces, buckles and metal trim give your sport suit the sturdy look it needs. To keep that look a little feminine, choose a pair with a little bit of a heel.

RAIN OR SHINE, classic or contemporary, spring dress ensembles reflects an elegant versatility. On the left, a gray wool flannel double-breasted topcoat with bel-collar contrasts in a new deeper tan palette.

Regner Proposals Making Progress

State Rep. David J. Regner (R-Mount Prospect) filed two bills on the Illinois General Assembly this week. The expense becomes a part of the budget which must be approved by the township electors at the annual township election.

The bill will clarify the township electors as to when the money shall come from the township treasury to cover the expenses of the office.

Regner said that he has received a number of township leaders that have the authority to levy taxes to make appropriations and are not allowed to have their accounts audited or to have financial statements made public.

Some of these officials, Regner points out, are appointed, other elected. He is fighting to think what could possibly be happening under these circumstances.

Under the provisions of the bill, annual audits of each township would be made and copies of the audit sent to the township electors. It then becomes a matter of public record.

Regner's second bill allows the township collector

FOR FRIDAY
PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 21) — Get full attention to personal matters if you would see the day end well for you and your associates. Seek advice from others.
ARIES (Mar. 22 - Apr. 20) — Stick to routine as much as possible today. Keep suggestions of others in mind for consideration at another time.
TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21) — Should you take a journey, in the interest of family affairs, take care to leave all peaceful behind you. Explain matters to children.
GEMINI (May 22-June 21) — Further career interests during morning hours. This can be a day of gain for the Gemini as of common sense and good judgment.
CANCER (June 22 - July 22) — Take care you are not talked into making expenditures you neither desire nor can afford. Keep your head.
LEO (July 23-Aug. 23) — Trust to your own judgment rather than to the opinions of others when it comes to making decisions relevant to your career.
VIRGO (Aug. 24-Sept. 23) — Personal affairs may well interfere with the performance of your professional duties at the time. Take it easy.
LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23) — Solve employment problems from the standpoint of all concerned. Let personal interests bend to the majority position.
SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) — You may be faced with unexpected results of your activity. Watcher they are good or bad depends on how you hold it.
SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 22) — Unpleasantness may cause present plans. Take care they don't mistake a normal showing of activity for failure.
CAPRICORN (Dec. 23-Jan. 20) — Shortly legal matters come up for your consideration, consult an expert. Decide you neither have a bearing on your matter nor the race. Don't be disappointed merely because things don't progress as rapidly as you anticipate.

N. Chicago Thumps Antioch Five

BY DALE HOFFMAN

North Chicago's pre-tournament basketball team posted another milestone on the road to Chicago last night by eliminating Antioch, 68-59 in the first game of the Arlington Section Tournament.

THE WARHAWKS simply rolled down an ancient but maintained Antioch court, scoring 40 points in the second half to be played tomorrow. North Chicago will risk its 24-2 record record, tied against the winner of tonight's Notre Dame-St. Patrick match.

Last night's victory tumbled the team that had to trash at the local favorite, Antioch had trailed off both halves and Arlington in regional play last week.

The loss left the Sequoia with a final 20-5 record as well as conference, district, and regional crowns to their credit.

Persistence and some red-hot field goal shooting earned the day for the blue-jacketed Hawks. North Chicago fed at an astounding 38 per cent clip from the floor against a cold first quarter that saw it miss all first shots.

SENIOR JUMPING Jack Reuter, who scored the Hawks with 26 points while two teammates also registered in double figures. Antioch also was far from tight in its field goal shooting, hitting on 47 per cent of its tries. Tyrone Walls closed out his varsity career with a 22-point effort - high for the Hawks - despite a fine offensive play from North Chicago's Johnny Johnson.

There was never much doubt as to which club held the edge in talent last night, but the poorly Sequoia failed to find a decided rebounding advantage along with North Chicago's intensity at the free-throw line served to keep Antioch in contention all the way, although the Hawks began to look stronger and stronger in the second half as the Sequoia showed signs of fading.

NORTH CHICAGO sprinted to a 17-14 lead in the second quarter, slipping through the Antioch man-to-man defense almost at will but missing nearly half the layups that they had in the first half.

Walls was practically the whole show for the Hawks in that status, as he notched nine of his points before the buzzer. Antioch managed to wrangle the lead from the big first half in the second period, picking up most of its 17 points from the charity stripe. The Hawks took over when Walls collected three points in the quarter, forcing him to play a more cautious game than most the rest of the way.

THE HAWKS seemed to be full steam in the final quarter. Only once did they bring the ball downcourt in that quarter, and in the last minute they threw for their first lead. The lead grew to eight points with two minutes left, and North Chicago simply killed the clock.

Notre Dame and St. Patrick will collide at 8 p.m. tomorrow. Friday's final is also slated for 8 p.m.

ANTIOCH ENJOYED its last look at the contest with 3:30 left on the second period, gaining a 26-24 edge on a free throw by Steve MacIsaac. But North Chicago recovered the advantage 3-1 in halfcourt.

The big third quarter that carried the Sequoia through their regional semi-final and final victories never materialized last night. Instead the Sequoia were guilty of five turnovers early in the frame, and the Hawks took advantage to post their biggest lead of the night at 45-35 with roughly 11 minutes to be played.

Walls and Antioch pro Fred Emplfield trimmed the margin to three points with back-to-back foul shots, but Walls made it 47-42 at the quarter with a first-second rebound shot.

Antioch's Don Zamm drew a Sequoia rule dance as he scrambled with North Chicago's Darrel Harman and Larry Cabler for a rebound during last night's sectional tournament action at Arlington High School. North Chicago advanced to the finals with a 68-59 victory.

Niles East Trims Card Trackmen

Niles East, limited Arlington's victory thanks to three first place finishes yesterday by joining the Cardinals.

COACH BRUCE Samson's thanks went to the Cardinals for the distance between with Kory Casper, who scored 10 points, and sophomore Tom Swanson, who finished with 10 points, and the Cardinals' own Tom Swanson, who finished with 10 points.

Casper found the mile in 4:43, while Swanson took 5:04. Swanson took 5:04.

ARLINGTON MANAGED only two seconds and a smattering of shots at the final events. Kim Markham got one of the seconds in the shot and Ted Somers picked up the other one in the pole vault.

The Cardinals sophomore team handled just as roughly by the Cardinals, losing 76-30 to the Cardinals.

SALEM'S Cardinals sophomore team handled just as roughly by the Cardinals, losing 76-30 to the Cardinals.

BE SURE..

When you are buying or selling real estate, a good way to be sure that you are doing the right thing is to transact your business through a Realtor.

Are you planning to buy or sell real estate? If so, here's the most important fact you should know before making any kind of real estate transaction. It's this: Not every real estate man or woman is a Realtor! You see, Realtors are professional real estate men and women who are members of the National Association of Real Estate Boards and the Northwest Suburban Board of Realtors. These men and women also subscribe to the professional standards of an established code of ethics. What does all this mean to you? Exactly this. When you sell . . . a Realtor is able to tell you accurately what your real estate is likely to bring . . . and able to market it for you as quickly as conditions warrant. When you buy . . . a Realtor is able to find property for you which suits your needs and pocketbook. A Realtor is ready and willing to put his storehouse of real estate knowledge and information

Realtor—a professional in real estate who subscribes, to a strict Code of Ethics as a member of the local and state boards and of the National Association of Real Estate Boards.

REALTOR'S PLEDGE

Perhaps the best summary of the high ideals which the Realtor embraces is contained in his Realtor's Pledge:

I AM A REALTOR

A Realtor is not "just another real estate man." He's a member of your local real estate board and thus of the National Association of Real Estate Boards. Only by this affiliation is he permitted to use the trademark. REALTOR.

IMMEDIATE POSSESSION

I Pledge Myself:

- To protect the individual right of real estate ownership and to widen the opportunity to enjoy it;
- To be honorable and honest in all dealings;
- To seek better to represent my clients by building my knowledge and competence;
- To act fairly towards all in the spirit of the Golden Rule;
- To serve well my community, and through it my country;
- To observe the Realtor's Code of Ethics and conform my conduct to its lofty ideals.

Aerial Photos Urged to Find Buildings Not on Tax Rolls

Six per cent is usually considered a good return on an investment, but governments in Palatine Township may be able to rack up a 300 per cent gain on one project.

Subtitled: Six, let it be West Chicago. Monday night proposed a plan for an aerial photographic survey of the township for buildings not on tax rolls. The plan was presented by the Rolling Meadows City Manager R.D. Hengeler said Thursday that all the administrators attending the presentation seemed in favor of spending the $10,000 it would cost to finance the survey. Hengeler said that the township governments could save $40,000 in new annual tax revenue using the survey photographs to check against records. The township governments had been asked to check against records. The township governments had been asked to check against records.

Schools in Area May Get Extra $1 Million

By BRUCE CUTLER

Increased State aid to northwest suburban school districts will top the $1 million figure if the legislature agrees to a $400-per-pupil formula beginning July 1.

The formula, recommended in December by Ray Pate, state superintendent of instruction, and approved by Republican legislative leaders two weeks ago, was produced at a conference in Gov. Otto Kerner's office Tuesday.

The governor's task force on education had recommended state aid to $600 a pupil, plus about $100 a pupil, for the 1967-68 school year. The formula would increase the state aid to $700 a pupil, plus about $100 a pupil, for the 1967-68 school year.

The new formula, elementary school districts receive the difference between the district's per-pupil cost and the state aid. The formula would increase the state aid to $700 a pupil, plus about $100 a pupil, for the 1967-68 school year.

The per-pupil formula is an incentive for school districts to improve their schools. The formula would increase the state aid to $700 a pupil, plus about $100 a pupil, for the 1967-68 school year.

No Aid Possible For District 214

The largest high school district in Illinois will not get any money from the new formula. The formula would increase the state aid to $700 a pupil, plus about $100 a pupil, for the 1967-68 school year.

According to Jack Martin, assistant to the superintendent, High School District 214 simply does not qualify for aid since its per-pupil cost is less than $800, far above the state's minimum.

High Schools in the district include Arlington, Prospect, Forest View, Washington, and Elk Grove.

The district is the district in the northwest suburbs. The formula would increase the state aid to $700 a pupil, plus about $100 a pupil, for the 1967-68 school year.

Laura O'Keefe models "the prettiest hat" at the Arlington Heights Newsweek Mad Hatter luncheon.

This spring garden hat created by Marion O'Connor was first prize for the most original hat at the Associate Newsweekers luncheon.

A vegetable garden provided the material for Marie Williams' hat named the "Smilester" one at the Newsweekers luncheon.

Diane Coyle, was first prize in the Associate Newsweekers Hat Contest for the cleverest hat.

How About These for the Easter Parade

BY MARILYN HELFERS

Women's Editor
If you haven't bought your Easter bonnet yet, you could copy the Arlington Heights Newsweekers Club and make one of your own.

All the ladies at the Newsweekers Annual Mad Hatter luncheon were decked out in their own creations — but one, little one, lovely one and hilarious one. Spring was definitely in the March air, and the results of Old Orchard Country Club. The lady paraded in their homemade bonnets around tables gaily decorated with pastel hats of crepe paper and spring flowers.

Laura O'Keefe was first prize for the prettiest hat. Her hat, which she made was a joint project that included her neighbors and her husband. It was made of yards of shirring, pink net draped over an old Easter basket and accented with flowers. Helen George won an honorable mention in this division with her hat artistically created from yellow flowers.

Princess LeZotte was first prize for the cleverest hat — a monkey holding an artist's brush was perched on top of her head. Mavis Maerz was a honorable mention.
Marie Williams created her hat with material collected from the vegetable cropper of her refrigerator — broccoli, carrots and braised sprouts — it was first prize for the funniest hat. Vicki Russell received an honorable mention.

In an adjoining dining room the Associate Newsweekers, a newly formed group made up of women who have been in Newsweekers for three years, had their own mad hat contest.

Diane Coyle was first prize for the cleverest hat, which she designed to advertise a coupon bowling event coming up for the Associates. Bonnie Simmons, club vice president, won an honorable mention for the most original hat.
Marion O'Connor's spring garden hat was first prize as the most original and Sophie Neust received honorable mention.

After a hearty luncheon of sandwiches and potato salad, both groups spent the remainder of the afternoon playing cards and discussing whether, in spite of the snow, spring can really be far away.

Chicago police collected something like 2,800 notes from the streets after the gun-surrender. It has to be the biggest bonanza on record.

Vantage Point

The Lockheed-Georgia Co., one of the nation's largest designers and builders of aircraft, believe that a case file a pair of wings to a 45 foot high, 245 foot long, 227 foot wide sky scraper and get it off the ground.

Lockheed has convinced the U.S. Air Force to award an oral billion dollars for construction of 51 giant C-5A transport planes.

We said, "It will never fly!" Lockheed's representative at its Atlanta, Ga. factory where we inspected the mock-up of the C-5A, answered us by saying, "That's what they told the Wright Brothers."

If it does fly, and Lockheed promised the Air Force it will revolutionize the aviation industry.

The 720,000 pound airplane will carry a payload of cargo estimated at 265,000 pounds. It will operate at a maximum speed of 470 knots on hour and have a cruising range, with full payload, of 3,000 miles.

THOSE who are familiar with the aircraft industry will be the first to admit that it might just be possible for such an airplane to fly, but must get there is no runway in the world big enough to allow it to take into consideration and then the aircraft's tremendous size and range threat will be in effect off the ground in 7,500 feet and land at 4,000 feet. This is a not much runway that modeled by a present-day jet passenger liner.

Our preliminary impression on inspecting the mock-up of the airplane was simply, it will never fly.

If it does, and Lockheed engineers and designers have little doubt about the plane's capabilities, here is where it will do for the air force.

Transport a full complement of combat troops - more than 350 men - and their equipment from installations to battle areas.

Transport a complete armor platoon, including staff cars, tanks, recovery vehicles and two helicopters into combat zones.

Deliver 40-ton military cranes (132,000 pounds) to air areas where additional construction facilities are needed.

Transport two mainline railroads in shipping and storage containers, along with the missile crew, to a trouble spot.

According to information released by the Air Force, the C-5A will have the following assignment as its principal mission:

"Provide rapid additional capacity for rapid deployment of back country forces and their fighting equipment."

Replace the C-130, itself a huge airplane, as the aerial vehicle for hauling entire cargo.

Provide general military logistic support at all times.

Four General Electric turbo-prop engines will power the C-5A.

Rumsfeld Calls For Conduct Comm.

Congressman Donald Rumsfeld of the 13th district has called on the House of Representatives to create a committee on standards and conduct which would establish the criteria and mechanisms for ensuring the congressional conduct of members. "It is a way which is compatible with the high trust placed in them by the constituents," he said.

Rumsfeld points out that the recent case of Adam Clayton Powell has left the principle of congressional ethical standards.

"In my opinion the principle involved in the Powell case was the integrity of the U.S. House of Representatives," he said.

"Rumsfeld said, 'It is for the members of Congress to protect the integrity of the House.'"

"However," Rumsfeld concluded, "it is for the members of Congress to protect the integrity of the House."

What Democracy Means

BY BETH McDONALD

At the disposal of the majority of young adults in America are libraries, concert halls and theaters, modern high schools and colleges - everything and anything to improve an educational and cultural background. Opportunity awaits as ambitious and aspiring generation, which is becoming increasingly aware of their role in the world of the future. They are aware of the value of the life of the future they have chosen to live. They are aware of the value of the life of the future they have chosen to live.

With today's society doing its utmost to afford its youth the luxury of freedom, American youth should feel proud part of the scheme designed to keep man free. We must absorb the wealth of knowledge to enrich our own lives and imbibe the lives of those less fortunate or less capable than we. Since it is through equality that man improves himself, we must protect it, and progress. As an individual in a free society, it is essential to stay alert to the problems of the day and be aware of the solutions being devised, that we may endeavor to educate ourselves in practical living. We must apply to the government of the student body, by the students, in our high schools and colleges. Here, then, we can put our observations and practical knowledge to use. For if we can effectively govern a large body of men now, we are sure to become equally as successful in governing our country to have life.

Too many of our generation are impatient to the need for every young adult to do his part in keeping our democracy a thriving and prosperous country. The key to continued participation is for every individual to keep informed. The government is manipulated by the people. For the people, therefore, it is the citizen's duty to keep abreast of current events. As our generation is rapidly approaching the time when the government will be in our hands, the duty belongs equally to us. But being informed is not enough - we must communicate that information among ourselves, exchange ideas and discuss timely issues of importance. Democracy is a living thing and like all other life, it must be nourished and sustained to keep it working.

The strength of our country lies in the government and the strength of the government lies in the people - those who are being governed. The only way in which to keep our country strong and free in the future is by assuring its people of a generation of young adults who are mature, responsible citizens. Maturity is the basic element in a free society - for it takes a mature individual to stand on his own and govern himself, instead of covering in the shadow of a dictator or monarch. Only a mature individual can learn to tolerate either peace or war. Only a mature individual can learn to tolerate either peace or war. Only a mature individual can learn to tolerate either peace or war.

Horoscope

FOR SATURDAY

FISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar. 21)

- Finish present home project before moving on to something else. Don't allow promises to distract a steady job.

ARIES (Mar. 22-Apr. 20)

- A division of interests may make it difficult for you to achieve success with hobbies today. Broaden your horizon instead.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)

- Take care of actual work this morning; save afternoon hours for projects you can do with the family - children included.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

- Family interests should continue steady with business or professional matters. See that all is peaceful in the home.

CANCER (June 22-July 23)

- Plans personally put off should be put into action now. An excellent day for the Cancer to interfere with your plans for family enjoyment. Include children in activities.

LEO (July 24-Aug. 23)

- Don't allow a meeting with old friends to interfere with your plans for family enjoyment. Include children in activities.

VIRGO (Aug. 24-Sept. 23)

- As busy day for the Virgo who has intimate concerns with small children. See that their interests are served.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)

- Best to preserve your own interests during morning hours. Afternoon may bring unexpected guests that will keep you from tasks planned.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 23)

- An important business matter may take your Saturday time. Don't upgrade a big boost to your career interests.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 24-Dec. 23)

- Dec. 23 - A sticky social situation may call for the highest diplomacy. Make sure family members know what you mean.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 24-Jan. 20)

- An official contact could prove more important than you imagine just now. Make a good impression the first time.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)

- A good day for taking care of property. Be conscientious and you should automatically be efficient in your activities.
